

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING MANUSCRIPTS

1. Only original and unpublished contributions will be accepted. The Review's official language is Spanish. Contributions written in French, English, Portuguese or Italian will be published in those languages. Articles that have been published in the aforesaid languages or other will be considered only if it is the first time that they are translated to Spanish. It is necessary to indicate whether the contribution has been submitted to be published in other place.
2. All contributions must meet the following requirements when sent: printed with a laser printer, double spaced, and using font 12. A diskette or an e-mail file must also be sent along with the article in MS Word DOS 5.0 or Word for Windows 6 or 7.
3. The maximum length of each contribution is: 35 pages for articles; 12 pages for comments on court decisions or laws; and 10 pages for book reviews.
4. Each contribution must have an abstract of no more than 200 words.
5. The following format is suggested for citation:

² Valadés, Diego, "Las relaciones de control entre el Legislativo y el Ejecutivo en México", Revista Mexicana de Estudios Parlamentarios, México, vol. I, núm. 1, enero-abril de 1991, p. 205.

³ Fix-Zamudio, Héctor, op. cit., nota 1, p. 151.

⁴ Idem.

⁵ Ibidem, p. 154.

6. Along with all contributions the following information should be included: author's name and address; current work place; position; telephone; fax; and e-mail address, so we can keep contact with the authors.
7. Every contribution will be subject to an evaluation in which its eligibility for publication will be decided. The decision will be communicated to the author fifteen days after the committee's meeting has taken place.
8. A proof sheet will be sent to the author for his approval. He will have five working days to correct it and send it back. Only spelling and grammatical corrections will be considered. Therefore no modifications of any other type will be permitted, even those that arise from legislative changes that may take place after the contribution has been submitted. If the proof sheet material is not returned within the aforesaid period, it will be assumed that the author has given his approval.
9. Contributions must be sent to the following address: Cuestiones Constitucionales. Revista Mexicana de Derecho Constitucional, Instituto de Investigaciones Jurídicas de la UNAM, Circuito Maestro Mario de la Cueva s/n, Ciudad de la Investigación en Humanidades, Ciudad Universitaria, Delegación Coyoacán, C.
