

vate and public international law, comparative law, conflicts of laws, immigration and nationality law, family law, human rights and the status of refugees, as well as related trade and investment agreements.

Mexico's leadership as a global player deserves no less than a national normative and institutional framework advancing international legal certainty and effective access to justice across borders.

Received: May 30th, 2018.

Accepted: October 3rd, 2018.